Second Tuesday – November 13

How's your perspective? What is it and when do you use it? How many types of perspective are there? Can you create depth in art without it?

Join Jan Henning at our November Second Tuesday and learn about the value of perspective. This informative session is from 10 a.m. to noon at the Glade Clubhouse, 16, Farm Glade Drive, Rehoboth Beach and is free to members and $10 for guests.

Come and meet other artists, enjoy some wonderful snacks and a friendly atmosphere. You might win one of our door prizes!

Member News

Elizabeth Forsythe received the first DWS President's Award for her painting, "Upper Deck View." Anne Crown-Cyr presented the award at the Wilmington University exhibition's opening reception on Friday, November 2.

Forsythe's painting is a good example of taking something from our everyday experience and presenting it in a new, dynamic way.

If you get the chance, stop by and enjoy the lovely variety of talent exhibited by DWS members.

Isabel Pizzolato commanded another successful workshop at the Lewes Library on Saturday, November 2. This is the fourth mini-session in a collaborative program between DWS and the Lewes Library to introduce novice artists to watercolor. The program, Come Paint with Us, is funded in part by a DDOA grant. Pizzolato received accolades for her wonderful instruction, and the 23 students each produced a finished landscape painting.
